

Doncaster has a new Brewery named: 1086. Themed around the history of Cusworth Hall and its Estate its owners and Domesday Book entries.

Using the power of the Internet please find some links to the background to the the idea and concept of bringing the brewery back to life.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cusworth_Hall

It is housed in the original brewhouse of Cusworth Hall. A Nano-Brewery (<https://www.probrewer.com/library/nano-breweries/nano-brewery-basics/>) creating traditional ales with a contemporary twist.

Beers currently on Bar are;

Lady Isabella IPA; <https://www.heritagedoncaster.org.uk/lady-isabella/>

Sir Roger of Bully Bitter; https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Roger_de_Busli

Cuzeuorde Pale Ale; (Cusworth Estate) (mentioned as 'Cuzeuorde' in the domesday survey of 1086)

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cusworth_Hall

Please note the information has not been confirmed by the owners. And no responsibility can be accepted by Doncaster CAMRA for any errors.

Other Usefull links

<https://twitter.com/1086brewery>

https://twitter.com/Cusworth_Hall

<https://www.heritagedoncaster.org.uk/cusworth-hall/facilities/>

<https://twitter.com/DoncasterCAMRA/status/1053679698583138306>